SYNOPSIS

On December 27, 2016, Compton Station received a 911 call from [redacted] (Witness [redacted]). Witness [redacted] told the 911 operator her [redacted] (Exhibit D, Victim [redacted]) was robbed. Witness [redacted] advised the 911 operator several male Hispanics, and one female Hispanic, were at the carwash on the corner of Compton Boulevard and Aranbe Avenue, and were the suspects who robbed her [redacted] Witness [redacted] described the suspect's vehicle as a camouflage Dodge Durango with Idaho license plates. As the 911 operator continued to gather information, Witness [redacted] updated the 911 operator one of the suspects had a black gun (Exhibit A, CD #1, 911 call).

Deputy Guillermo Anaya #[redacted] Compton Unit 282K1, was given the handle on the call, Incident #CPT16362-0162 (Exhibit C). Deputies [redacted] #[redacted] and Daniel Ruiz #[redacted] Compton Unit 283T1, were given the assist on the call.

Deputy Anaya requested a Sheriff's helicopter (Exhibit A, CD #1, SCC1) through Sheriff's Communication Center (SCC) while Unit 283T1 coordinated with additional assisting units on L-Tac (Exhibit A, CD #1, LTAC1). Deputy Anaya continued to drive toward the location when the call was updated that one of the suspects had a gun (Exhibit A, CD #1, LTAC2).

After setting up a containment, Deputies Ruiz and [redacted] drove toward the carwash where they located the suspect vehicle. Deputies Ruiz and [redacted] approached the suspect vehicle and detained several people at gunpoint. Deputy [redacted] advised SCC and assisting Compton units of their location (Exhibit A, CD #1, SCC2), and detained the people at gunpoint until other units arrived. Once other deputies arrived, Deputy [redacted] saw several Hispanics run west on Compton Boulevard from the carwash. Deputy [redacted] believed the people he saw run were involved in the robbery. Deputy [redacted] walked approximately 15 feet away from his patrol car, watched the people continue to run west on Compton Boulevard, and advised assisting units on the radio of his observations ([redacted] pages 5-8). As Deputy [redacted] watched the people run west on Compton Boulevard, his partner, Deputy Ruiz, and assisting Deputies Rios #[redacted] and Stevens #[redacted] dealt with the detention of the people at gunpoint ([redacted] page 7; Ruiz, page 6).

Deputy Anaya heard Unit 283T1 on the patch, who advised responding units they were detaining several suspects at gunpoint. Deputy Anaya heard on the radio a suspect ran west on Compton Boulevard from Aranbe Avenue, and was chased by four to five male Hispanics (Exhibit A, CD #1, SCC2). Deputy Anaya arrived at the intersection of Compton Boulevard and Aranbe Avenue, and saw Deputy [redacted] standing on the east curb line of Aranbe Avenue, north of Compton Boulevard. Deputy Anaya saw Deputy [redacted] pointing west on Compton Boulevard and simultaneously heard over the radio the armed suspect had run west on Compton Boulevard (Anaya, pages 6-8). Deputy [redacted] saw Deputy Anaya drive west on Compton Boulevard alone, and requested on the radio for an additional patrol unit to assist Deputy Anaya (Exhibit A, CD #1, SCC2).

Deputy Anaya focused his attention to Compton Boulevard, west of Aranbe Avenue, and saw a group of four to five male Hispanics and one female Hispanic. Deputy Anaya also saw a lone male Hispanic (Suspect Farias) running ahead of the group. Deputy Anaya believed the group of Hispanics chased Suspect Farias from the carwash. Deputy Anaya drove past the group of Hispanics and toward Suspect Farias. As Deputy Anaya neared Suspect Farias in his patrol vehicle, he noticed Suspect Farias had a large tattoo on the back of his head. Deputy Anaya saw the tattoo read "[redacted]", which stood for [redacted] Deputy Anaya immediately recognized the "[redacted]" tattoo as a gang tattoo (Anaya, page 9-10).

As Deputy Anaya neared Suspect Farias, he believed Suspect Farias was a gang member and armed with a firearm. Deputy Anaya noticed Suspect Farias continuously looked back at him while running, and manipulated his waistband with his hands. Deputy Anaya, not wanting to pass Suspect Farias, slowed his patrol vehicle and angled his vehicle behind Suspect Farias, who had slowed to a walk. Deputy Anaya, who is right handed, prepared to exit his patrol vehicle and manipulated the seatbelt release with his right hand, but was unable to disengage it. Deputy Anaya maintained a visual on Suspect Farias as he continued to try and disengage his seatbelt. As Deputy Anaya stopped his patrol vehicle, he was stuck within his seatbelt and unable to immediately exit his patrol vehicle. Deputy Anaya saw Suspect Farias turn his body to the right, lowered his center of gravity, and faced away from Deputy Anaya. Deputy Anaya saw Suspect Farias turned back to his left while he manipulated his waistband. Suspect Farias now faced Deputy Anaya, and Deputy Anaya believed Suspect Farias had armed himself. Deputy Anaya feared for his personal safety, drew his firearm from his holster with his right hand, manipulated the seatbelt release with his left hand, and simultaneously fired one round through the windshield of his patrol vehicle at Suspect Farias (Anaya, pages 11-12 and 15).

After firing one round, Deputy Anaya's seatbelt unbuckled, allowing him to exit his patrol vehicle. Deputy Anaya assessed the situation and immediately gained compliance from Suspect Farias. Suspect Farias lied down on the ground in a prone position while Deputy Anaya gave him orders. Deputy Anaya immediately advised SCC he had been involved in a shooting (Exhibit A, CD #1, SCC2) and continued to cover Suspect Farias (Anaya, pages 15-16).

Deputies Nunez #[redacted] and Garcia #[redacted] Compton unit 282F1, also drove west on Compton Boulevard from Aranbe Avenue, where they saw a lone patrol vehicle (Deputy Anaya), which continued west on Compton Boulevard in front of them. Deputies Nunez and Garcia saw the group of Hispanics on the north sidewalk of Compton Boulevard, saw one male and one female Hispanic waving their arms, and pointing at a person on the ground. Deputies Nunez and Garcia, believing these people were trying to gain their attention, stopped at the group of Hispanics and detained everyone at gunpoint (Nunez, page 6; Garcia, pages 6-7). Deputy Garcia advised SCC and assisting units of their location on the radio (Exhibit A, CD #1, SCC2).

Deputies Clarke #[redacted] and Seputyte #[redacted] Compton Unit 287B, arrived at Deputies Nunez' and Garcia's location and saw several Hispanics on the sidewalk.

> IAB Note: Deputy Seputyte was in her [redacted] on the date of this incident.

Deputy Clarke exited his patrol vehicle and within a few seconds heard "998," indicating a deputy involved shooting, over his radio. Deputy Clarke realized the deputy involved was Deputy Anaya, who was approximately 50 feet west of his location. Deputy Clarke had Deputy Seputyte remain with Deputies Nunez and Garcia to assist with the group of detained persons.

Deputy Clarke saw a male Hispanic (Suspect Farias) lying on the sidewalk with his arms out to his side. Deputy Anaya detained Suspect Farias at gunpoint. Deputy Clarke ran west on Compton Boulevard to Deputy Anaya's location. He asked Deputy Anaya if the suspect was armed and awaited another unit before approaching. Deputy Giron #[redacted] arrived within seconds. Together, Deputies Clarke and Giron approached Suspect Farias and handcuffed him without incident. Suspect Farias was not injured (Clarke, pages 8-10).

Sergeant Tiwari #[redacted] Compton Unit 280S, heard the call for service and responded to the area from Compton Station. Sergeant Tiwari monitored the coordination of deputies on the radio while in route to the location. As Sergeant Tiwari arrived in the area, he heard emergent traffic regarding deputies detaining robbery suspects at gunpoint at the carwash. Sergeant Tiwari drove toward the carwash when he was directed by an unknown deputy to assist Deputy Anaya, who drove west on Compton Boulevard. Sergeant Tiwari saw a single patrol vehicle on Compton Boulevard, west of the carwash. Sergeant Tiwari saw the patrol vehicle was stopped, slightly angled, facing a northwest direction. Sergeant Tiwari saw Deputy Anaya standing outside of his patrol vehicle along with an unknown deputy.

As Sergeant Tiwari arrived at Deputy Anaya's patrol vehicle, he heard over the radio "998." He did not know it was Deputy Anaya who had discharged his weapon. Sergeant Tiwari monitored the scene as deputies approached and handcuffed the suspect. After the suspect was handcuffed, Deputy Anaya told Sergeant Tiwari he had fired his weapon.

Sergeant Tiwari gathered a safety statement from Deputy Anaya, ensured deputy personnel controlled the scene and established a containment. Sergeant Tiwari had Deputy Anaya transported to Compton Station by Sergeant Keith Schumaker #[redacted]

> IAB Note: During IAB interviews with deputy personnel, no deputy knew or heard Deputy Anaya discharged his firearm until he broadcast "998" via his radio.

A weapon was not recovered from Suspect Farias. However, during the investigation, Witness [redacted] saw Suspect Farias with a black handgun and saw him toss the firearm into a trashcan at the carwash.

A black firearm was recovered from the trashcan. Witness [redacted] verified the firearm as the one she saw Suspect Farias held prior to the arrival of deputies (Exhibit E, page 12). The recovered firearm was a Smith and Wesson 38 Special revolver, Model 10-5, which contained six live rounds (Exhibit D, page 14, Evidence #7).

No deputy personnel were injured during this incident.

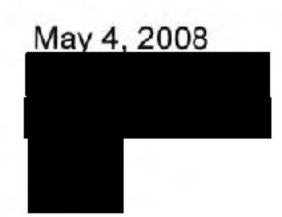

All deputy personnel involved in this incident authored reports (Exhibits D and E).

WITNESS EMPLOYEE SECURITY OFFICER JORGE ROMAN

On January 18, 2017, Security Officer (SO) Jorge Roman was interviewed by Internal Affairs Bureau Sergeants Jonathan Hoyt and [redacted]

On December 27, 2016, SO Roman was assigned to County Services Bureau, South Facilities, Department of Mental Health building located at 546 West Compton Boulevard in the city of Compton. SO Roman was in full uniform, wearing a full Sam Browne with firearm and radio.

On December 27, 2016, SO Roman was inside his work assignment when he heard over his Sheriff's radio a strong arm robbery occurred. He heard the call was updated and the suspect had brandished a firearm. SO Roman heard the location of the call was at the corner of Aranbe Avenue and Compton Boulevard, which is few blocks east of his assignment (Roman, page 4).

SO Roman continued to monitor the radio as he stepped outside and looked east from his location. SO Roman saw one suspect (Suspect Farias) run north across Compton Boulevard while being chased by two males and one female. When Suspect Farias reached the carwash at the north east corner of Compton Boulevard and Aranbe Avenue, SO Roman saw Suspect Farias and the males who were chasing him begin to fight. After 15 to 20 seconds, the fight ended and Suspect Farias ran west on Compton Boulevard while the other male Hispanics chased him (Roman, page 5).

As SO Roman continued to monitor the situation, he saw Suspect Farias continued to run west on Compton Boulevard while being chased by two male Hispanics and one female Hispanic. SO Roman heard sirens and saw a marked black and white patrol vehicle with its overhead lights on traveling west on Compton Boulevard. As Suspect Farias continued running, SO Roman saw the patrol vehicle approached Suspect Farias, and Suspect Farias looked over his left shoulder at the responding patrol vehicle. SO Roman saw the patrol vehicle come to a stop at a slight angle to the rear of Suspect Farias. As the suspect slowed his pace, SO Roman saw the suspect had his hands near his waistband area. The suspect turned his body to the right, while keeping his hands around his waistband area, and appeared to be retrieving an item. SO Roman feared Suspect Farias was reaching for a weapon. SO Roman unlatched his holster and prepared to remove his firearm. SO Roman believed Suspect Farias was a threat to the deputy (Deputy Anaya) in the patrol vehicle and prepared himself to take action (Roman, pages 10-11).

SO Roman saw Deputy Anaya had put one foot out of the stopped patrol vehicle, saw Suspect Farias blade his body away, and heard one shot from a gun. SO Roman saw Deputy Anaya had his seatbelt on, was seated in the driver's seat, and fired his weapon with his right hand from within the patrol vehicle.

Immediately after Deputy Anaya fired the one shot, Suspect Farias put his hands in the air. Deputy Anaya stepped out of the patrol vehicle and gave Suspect Farias orders to either get on his knees, or to get on the ground (Roman, page 13 and 20). Suspect Farias cooperated with the commands from Deputy Anaya and laid on the ground.

> IAB Note: SO Roman was standing on the sidewalk, approximately 50 feet south of where the shooting occurred, and had a direct line of sight without visual obstruction of the incident.

SO Roman heard over his radio "998" and saw Deputy Anaya maintain cover while giving commands to Suspect Farias. Suspect Farias lied down on the sidewalk in a prone position and within a few seconds, several other deputies arrived and handcuffed Suspect Farias.

SUSPECT ROBERT FARIAS

On December 27, 2016, Suspect Robert Farias was interviewed by Internal Affairs Bureau Sergeants Jonathan Hoyt and John Adams. The interview was conducted at Compton Sheriff's Station.

On December 27, 2016, Suspect Farias was at the carwash, washing and vacuuming his vehicle with his friends and family. As he washed his vehicle, Suspect Farias noticed several males staring at him from across the street. Suspect Farias heard the males saying something to him, but he could not understand what was said. Suspect Farias walked toward the males to ascertain what they were saying. As he got closer to the males he heard them say, "What's up?" Suspect Farias asked the males, "Who are you?"

During the discussion between Suspect Farias and the males, Suspect Farias saw deputies in the area. Suspect Farias, not wanting to fight anyone in front of deputies, walked away from the males. As Suspect Farias was walking away from the males, he and his friend (Suspect Anthony Delgado) saw the males follow them on foot. Suspect Farias ran west on Compton Boulevard to escape the males. As he ran, Suspect Farias looked back and saw his friend being grabbed by the males on the sidewalk behind him. Suspect Farias heard sirens and looked behind him, where he saw a patrol vehicle pulling up on him.

Suspect Farias, having seen and heard the patrol vehicle coming toward him, stopped, turned and faced the patrol vehicle, then put both hands up in the air. As Suspect Farias had his hands in the air, he saw, but did not hear, the deputy say something. Suspect Farias saw the deputy's mouth move and he believed the deputy said "Oh fuck." Suspect Farias had his hands in the air and saw a shot came from inside the patrol vehicle and out through the windshield.

After the shot was fired, the deputy exited his patrol vehicle and ordered Suspect Farias to his knees, then to lie on the ground. Suspect Farias complied with the orders and remained on the ground until two other deputies arrived and handcuffed him.
